

Legacy Information Pack

Thank you for considering leaving a legacy to Ellel Ministries. It means that in years to come there will continue to be a safe place for people to come to receive personal help, training, encouragement and healing in Jesus through Ellel Ministries.

Making your will

Having a will gives you peace of mind for the future. It ensures that your your loved ones are looked after and that the causes you care about can continue to transform lives.

Making a will is simpler than you might think and need not be expensive. We recommend that you have your will written by a solicitor or qualified will writer. They will be able to guide you through each step of the process to make sure your will is as you want it to be.

Types of gift you can leave in your will

There are three main types of gift that you can leave in your will for Ellel Ministries.

- A share of your estate
Known as a 'residuary legacy', it is a percentage of what remains of your estate after all other gifts and expenses have been paid. One of the advantages of a residuary legacy is that it will always stay in proportion, because it is a percentage. So you don't need to worry about changing your will if you have less to leave than you expected.
- A specific sum
This is a gift of a set amount, called a 'pecuniary legacy'.

- A specific item

This could be something valuable such as property, shares or jewellery. If you leave a specific item to Ellel Ministries in your will, the value of your gift will be deducted from your estate before Inheritance Tax is applied, so it could reduce the amount of tax paid.

We recommend you discuss your will and the type of gift you might like to leave to Ellel Ministries with your solicitor or will writer.
